Additional External Tyre Cover

Tyre cover is addressed the specific risks and costs associated with tyre damage. This add-on ensures that policyholders receive financial protection for the repair or replacement of damaged tyres due to covered perils, such as punctures, cuts, bursts, or damage resulting from accidents. The coverage may specify the types of tyre damage covered, such as punctures, cuts, bursts, and whether it includes damage due to accidents. Coverage may be subject to the age of the tyres, and there may be limitations on the reimbursement amount based on the age of the damaged tyre. Coverage may also be subjected to the OEM terms and also subjected to the regular vehicle service, customer need to provide the regular service history. Policy have a limit on the number of tyre damage claims allowed during a specific period. The terms may differentiate between repairable damage and situations where replacement is necessary, affecting the reimbursement amount. Policyholders are required to adhere to proper tyre maintenance practices, such as maintaining the correct tyre pressure, to be eligible for coverage.
